The AVS 23rd International Conference on Atomic Layer Deposition (ALD 2023) featuring the 10th International Atomic Layer Etching Workshop (ALE 2023) will be a three-day meeting dedicated to the science and technology of atomic layer controlled deposition of thin films and now topics related to atomic layer etching. Since 2001, the ALD conference has been held alternately in the United States, Europe and Asia, allowing fruitful exchange of ideas, know-how and practices between scientists. This year, the ALD conference will again incorporate the Atomic Layer Etching 2023 Workshop, so that attendees can interact freely. The conference will take place Sunday, July 23-Wednesday, July 26, 2023, at the Hyatt Regency Bellevue in Bellevue, Washington (East Seattle). As at past conferences, the meeting will be preceded (Sunday, July 23, 2023) by one day of tutorials and a welcome reception. Sessions will take place (Monday-Wednesday, July 24-26, 2023). All presentations will be audio-recorded, and access provided to attendees following the conference (posters will be included as PDFs). ALD 2023 and ALE 2023 offer excellent sponsorship and/or exhibit opportunities that will enable an organization to maximize the impression they make at the conference given their budget constraints. Questions? More information is available at <http://www.ald2023.avs.org/> or contact Heather Korff, 530-896-0477, heather@avs.org.

RULE CHANGES: Exhibit Management reserves the right to modify or supplement these rules as it deems appropriate to the operation of the exhibit, and exhibitor agrees to be bound by them. Violations of any of these terms or regulations on the part of exhibitor, its employees or agents shall, at the option of Exhibit Management, constitute cause for Exhibit Management to terminate this Agreement, expel exhibitor from the exhibit, and exhibitor shall forfeit all fees paid to Exhibit Management.

named, harmless from any and all losses, costs, damages, liability, or expenses (including attorney's fees) arising from or by reason of any accident, bodily injury, property damage, theft or loss, or other claims or occurrences to any person, including exhibitor, its employees and agents, or any business invitees, arising out of or related to exhibitor's occupancy or use of the exhibition premises in the exhibit or in and adjacent to the Hyatt Regency Bellevue, including storage and parking areas.

The performance of this agreement is subject to termination without liability by either party upon the occurrence of any cause beyond the control of either party—including without limitations, acts of God, war, government regulations, disaster, pandemic/epidemic illness, strike or threat of strikes (except that neither party may terminate this Agreement for situations involving that party's own employees), civil disorder, or curtailment if transportation facilities—to the extent that such cause makes it commercially impracticable, illegal or impossible for Exhibit Management to provide exhibit space. In the event of its not being able to hold the exhibit for any of the above named reasons, Exhibit Management will refund to each exhibitor the amount paid for the space, less a proportionate share of all the expenses incurred by Exhibit Management for the exhibit.

INSURANCE: Exhibitor agrees to maintain general liability insurance in an amount not less than One Million Dollars ($1,000,000) to cover its potential liabilities under this Agreement, and shall name as additional insured under exhibitor's liability policy for the period of the exhibit including move-in and move-out periods: Exhibit Management (American Vacuum Society); the designated decorator; and all directors, members, officers, agents, employees, affiliates and subsidiaries of each of the above. Copies of additional insured endorsements and primary coverage endorsements and, if requested, complete copies of policies, shall be furnished to Exhibit Management sixty (60) days before the first day of the event.

Following an investigation, if appropriate, sanctions may range from verbal warning, to ejection from the meeting without refund, to notifying appropriate authorities. Retaliation for complaints of inappropriate conduct will not be tolerated. If a participant observes inappropriate comments or actions and personal intervention seems appropriate and safe, they should be considerate of all parties before intervening.

*AVS recognizes the global COVID-19 pandemic continues to impact face-to-face meetings. We anticipate seeing you in Bellevue and we will continue to comply with COVID-19 guidelines. As a result, all meeting and exhibit floor plans are subject to change to stay in compliance with these COVID-19 guidelines. Hybrid options will be considered as needed. Should an in-person meeting not be feasible, a virtual component will be planned. If the meeting goes virtual all exhibit-sponsorship fees will be 100% refunded and new opportunities will be offered.
